Become an Official at the 2011 Australian MotoGP

Picture: Officials get some access to some of the best vantage points of the Phillip Island Circuit.

The Australian round of the MotoGP World Championship is returning again in 2011, and an amazing opportunity exists for interested people to join the team and become an Official for the event.

Australia's biggest weekend of motorcycle racing will be held at Phillip Island on 14-16 October, and Officials once again have the chance to be part of the fun and get up close and personal with the world's best riders.

Australia's own Casey Stoner will be aiming for his fifth consecutive victory at the event, and he will be facing strong competition from the likes of Italian legend Valentino Rossi, teammate Dani Pedrosa, and reigning MotoGP World Champion Jorge Lorenzo.

A variety of roles exists for Officials at the 2011 MotoGP - including pit marshals, flag and track marshals and communicators - and volunteering as an Official has many benefits:

- FREE ENTRY FOR YOU AND A FRIEND for all three days of the event
- Invitation to a post-race Officials BBQ
- Free camping
- OPPORTUNITY TO MEET AND GREET WITH RIDERS.

To apply as an Official for the 2011 Australian MotoGP, please complete the Officials Application and Indemnity form which can be downloaded from the MA website at www.ma.org.au/officials.
