

That's me riding!

Rider Profile

Name: Neville Lush

Place of Birth: Victor Harbor Hospital

Height: 5' 10.5"

Weight: approx 70kgs

Occupation: Motorcycle Mechanic/Dyno Operator

Hobbies: Racing, fishing

Club: Mud 'n' Tars of course

Age when started racing: 21

What was your first machine: First started as passenger. First race bike 350 Honda

Reason for starting racing: Fun

Racing achievements: Post classic sidecar Oz #1 in 1998, Sidecar F1 Rookie Cup 2002, F1 Sidecar Oz #1 in 2003 & 2004. Various SA Champs on Sidecar in Road Racing & Dirt Track. The odd solo trophy

Team of people who you travel with you to events: Dale Eatts – Mechanic & Super passenger Martin Scott

Discipline competed in: Road Trials, Enduros, Dirt Track, Road Racing, Historic & Moderns, sprints, Hill Climbs

Goals for the Future: More fun

Role models/Most respected rider(s): Too many riders to list. Big Mick Doohan

Best part about racing: Just enjoying the contest. Doing big slides while the crowd is looking!

Worst part about racing: None really. It is voluntary after all

Sponsors (if any): Neville Lush Racing. Currently no others

Career Highlight: Hard to say. Probably ASC round win at Wanneroo in 2004 or final round in Phillip Island to clinch 04 Championship

Toughest competitor(s) competed against: Vince Messina

Any riding rituals: Usually try to wear red jocks

Normal pre-competition meals: normal food and plenty of water

FAVOURITE:

Food: Seafood

Colour: none really, possibly red

Type of machine: have a soft spot for all my old race bikes

Track or race circuit: Mac Park & Phillip Island, what the heck all of them!

Favourite sport apart from Motorcycle sport: Fishing
