

Rider Profile

Name: Rowan Pumpa

Nickname: Pumps

Date of Birth: 28/08/1978

Place of Birth: Angaston

Height: 180cm

Weight: 90kg

Occupation: Builder

Hobbies: Motorbikes, skiing, fishing, basketball, gym

Club: Keyneton MCC

Age when started racing: 20

What was your first machine: Honda MR50

Reason for starting racing: Always followed racing and my mates raced so thought it was my turn to have a go

Racing achievements: Back to back Enduro Championships, Two Victorian Green Triangle Championships, 3rd 2003 24 Hour Reliability Trial, Started and completed 4 Australian 2day Enduro Championships

Team of people who you travel with you to events: Brother Darren, mates Todd Haydon and Matt Sandow

Discipline competed in: A4DE, 24 Hour Trial, 6 Hour Trials, 2 days events, motocross

Goals for the Future: ISDE at New Zealand 14-19 November and to win more Enduro Championships

Role models/Most respected rider(s): David Holt, Andy Haydon, Stefan Merriman, Brad Williscroft

Best part about racing: friendships, the fun, its an individual sport

Worst part about racing: the cost and aches and pain

Sponsors (if any): Trevotta Racing, Irc Tyres, Coastal Oils

Career Highlight: Back to Back Enduro Titles, 6 A4DE's and selection in the SA team at the A4DE

Toughest competitor(s) competed against: locally would be Scott Irrgang and Shane Diener

Any riding rituals: wearing footy socks

Normal pre-competition meals: steak or pasta

Worst injury sustained from riding: cartilage in knee

FAVOURITE:

Food: chicken

Colour: blue

Type of machine: Husqvarna

Track or race circuit: a mates scrub track

Favourite sport apart from Motorcycle sport: skiing

Favourite Sporting team/s: Crows

